

FREE events to kick start Marlborough as market town of culture.
Bring a picnic, icecream, umbrella and blanket to Priory Gardens!

Reclaim Our River Launch

Presented by Kennet Valley Arts Trust, Action for the River Kennet and Marlborough Town Council

1pm / Priory Gardens / free entry

Over the last 2 years restoration work has been taking place in Priory Gardens to make the banks of the river Kennet a greener, safer and more enjoyable place to spend time. Join in with the celebrations to commemorate the successful completion of the People's Millions project voted for by the town in November 2006.

Photo by Peter Davison

Mr Wippy and the Conettes

Presented by Riverbank and We Love Marlborough. Performed by Curious Company

3pm, 3.45pm, 4.30pm / Priory Gardens / free entry

Each show is 30 mins long with tap dancing and singalong join-in session. Sample this delightful ice cream sundae, strawberry saucy, raspberry rippled 1940's inspired tap dancing musical cabaret show created by Curious Company from East Kennett.

The show comes straight out of an antique ice cream van and appeals to the whole family - from the very young to the very old. Come along, sing along and maybe join in. Part of National Big Dance 5-13 July - www.bigdance.org.uk

Photo by Anna Sexton

Marlborough's Musical Youth

Presented by Kaya Drums. Supported by Marlborough Community Area Strategic Partnership and Marlborough Area Development Trust.

1.30 - 2.45pm / Priory Gardens / free entry

Kaya Drums bring together 50 children to drum and sing in this beautiful riverside setting. Hearing is believing as groups from Marlborough Youth Development Centre, Oare Primary School,

Shalbourne Primary School, Great Bedwyn Primary School and Preshute Primary School perform pre-devised pieces and their own music. You can join in with the hands-on final funky jamming session.

Get in the Gallery

Presented by We Love Marlborough, Morgan Boyce Gallery and Riverbank

Exhibition open 5 July 10am - 6.30pm / free entry

Sunday 6 July 11am - 4pm

Tuesday 8 - Thursday 10 July 10am - 5.30pm

Morgan Boyce Gallery, Hughenden Yard

This show will see young local art talents shown next to more established Morgan Boyce artists. 4-18 year olds and local celebrities have been invited to create a piece of art on or from a postcard. Each anonymous work is for sale, the artist's identity revealed once purchased. A prize will be awarded by a judging panel for the best use of a postcard.

Photo by Anna Sexton

